I'm Giving Up Rocks For Lent

Jean Allen

"Repent and believe in the Good News." The original Greek word, translated later as 'repent', was 'metanoia'. When we hear the word 'repent', we think of turning away from sin and doing penance for past sins. Scripture scholars believe that is an extremely limited way of understanding metanoia.

Metanoia means a change of mind based on new information or understanding. It's a shift in perception, a transformative change of heart. It's conversion, which means to be turned around. Believe me, it's much easier to choose to give up chocolate or coffee for Lent than it is to open one's heart and mind to metanoia because, sad to say, we all resist changing our minds and being converted!

Converted to what? You're already baptized and confirmed Catholics. You already believe in the Holy Trinity. You already believe in and receive the Eucharist. You're already converted. The thing is, conversion is actually not a one-time event. Conversion is a lifetime journey and if you're not open to being converted continually, you're stuck. Not one of us can claim to be living in the ultimate truth about God. It doesn't matter how knowledgeable we are about the faith or how faithful we are to our prayers or to attending Mass; there will always be deep pockets of areas where we refuse to let go of "the way I've always done it" or where our opinions and prejudices are carved in stone and we're proud of it!

To be converted by the grace and love of God is an ongoing process of making our hearts of stone into hearts of flesh. To be converted is to seek to be as merciful with others as God is with us. It is a long-term softening process and I repeat: it is a process of grace. We can't do it on our own. But we have to be willing. We need to ask to be converted. We need to be open to being shown where our hearts are still rocky and hard and Lent is a wonderful season to seek conversion.

Metanoia: Convert and believe in the Good News!

The Silver Rose program demonstrates the unity between Knights of Columbus in Canada, the US and Mexico, through a series of prayer services promoting the dignity of all human life and honoring our Lady.

Journey Through Lent Video Series

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops has launched its 2024 Journey Through Lent video series. Beginning on Ash Wednesday, and for each Sunday in Lent, a video will be shared the CCCB website featuring pastoral reflections based on the Readings for the Sunday Eucharistic Celebration. This series is meant to offer spiritual inspiration and guidance on how to prepare well for the Easter season. To view the videos, please visit: <https://www.cccb.ca/evangelization-catechesis-catholic-education/video-resources/journey-through-lent/>.

Reclaiming Redemptive Suffering

On February 21 at 4 pm PT, the Canadian Catholic Bioethics Institute will host an online presentation on "Reclaiming Redemptive Suffering: A Spiritual Approach to the Meaning of Suffering". Many of us have lost any sense of 'meaning' in suffering. Some want to avoid it at all costs, even choosing early death. Our Catholic faith talks about 'redemptive' suffering, but what does that mean? Presenter Erin Kinsella will discuss this through the lens of her experience of chronic illness and developing spirituality of suffering. For more information and to register, please email: bioethics.usmc@utoronto.ca

Update and an Appeal from Development and Peace – Caritas Canada,

Before the imminent launch of our next Share Lent campaign, we would like to share a final update on our Stand for the Land, which will soon draw to a close.

Our program officer Mary Durran has filed a field report from Honduras, from the Guapinol community that the campaign is supporting.

The licence of the mine that has been polluting their rivers has expired, but its powerful owners are lobbying to have it renewed for 30 years. The community, which has opposed the mine repeatedly, unanimously and on pain of imprisonment and death, is now mobilizing to block the renewal of its permit.

They have reiterated their appreciation of Canadians' efforts to amplify their voices, which are still going largely unheard. That is why we need more people to sign our campaign letter before it is delivered to the Honduran ambassador to Canada next month.

We are still some ways short of our target of 32,000 signatures, and I am hoping you can help us meet it! Please do all you can to give this campaign one last big push in your parish bulletins, on your website and through your social media channels. The direct link for accessing the campaign letter online is devp.org/act.

As ever, thanks a lot for your continued support and cooperation.

There is no cost to attend the parish mission, however a free-will offering will be taken on the final day to support the cost of hosting the mission.
